

Inclusive Education Statement – Avoca SS

Our school is a community where students, parents, volunteers & teachers work together to strive for each student to participate in all aspects of school life. There is a shared commitment to support all students on their school “journey”, despite the diverse needs of each student. We do this by continuous professional learning.